Fine Farm For Sale.

We call your attention to the advertisement in this issue of the sale on Monday, September 5, 1904, of the fine Bourbon county farm, known as the Gilt Edge Stock Farm, the property of the late G. G. White.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway almost ended fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and piles. 25c at Oberdorfer's Drug Store.

ESTIMATES FURNISHED.—Ask me for an estimate to paint your house with Enamel House Paint. CHAS. COOLEY, 54pr-1f 514 and 516 Main Street.

Mysterious Circumstances.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. She who is blushing with health uses Dr. Kings New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c, at Oberdorfer's, the Druggist.

See us about Limestone curbing and let us talk to you about a concrete pavement in front of your property. Stuart & Woodford, opposite L. & N. freight depot.

Meeting of County Democratic Committee Saturday.

At the meeting of the Bourbon County Democratic Committee, Saturday, the following resolution were adopted, which explain themselves:

RESOLVED, That there shall be held in Bourbon county a Democratic Primary Election on Tuesday, November 15, 1904, for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates to be voted for at the regular November election for the following officers:

Representative, Judge, Sheriff, Jailor, County Attorney, School Superintendent, County Clerk, Assessor, Coroner, Surveyor, and in each Magisterial Precinct for Justice of the Peace and Constable.

RESOLVED, That said election be held under the Primary Election Law now in force, and that all known Democrats be, and are hereby invited to participate.

RESOLVED, That the following Committee, W. D. McIntyre, Lee Beall and Joseph Stewart be, and it is hereby appointed for the purpose of providing for said election as follows: they shall arrange for the arrangement and printing of the ballots, secure ballot boxes, estimate the cost of holding the election, and make an assessment on each candidate for a reasonable sum to defray the expense.

Each candidate shall pay said assessment at least fifteen days before said election, and at the time of payment, may recommend to said Committee a list of not more than four legally qualified men for election officers in each precinct in said County; from the names so furnished by the candidates, said Committee is empowered to select the election officers, namely, two judges, clerk and sheriff in each precinct, and said committee is directed to report its acts to the whole committee at a meeting to be held on Saturday, November 5, 1904, at two o'clock, p. m., standard time.

The customary manner of placing names on the ballots, to wit: in Alphabetical order, shall be observed.

RESOLVED, That the following gentlemen be and they are hereby recommended to the State Board of Election Commissioners from whom to select a Democratic member of the Bourbon County Board of Election Commissioners for the ensuing year: W. G. Talbott, Paris; E. F. Clappbrook, Hutchison, Ky.; W. G. McClintock, Millersburg, Ky.; Thomas Current, Riddles Mills, Ky.; John Leach, Elizabeth, Ky.

Will Represent Bourbon.

A. G. Jones, I. T. Collins, Hiram Redmon, Will Collins, Wm. Redmon, J. W. Jones, J. W. Young, Jr., and others left Sunday for the World's Fair to witness the horse show Wednesday. Bourbon will be represented by A. G. Jones with two saddle stallions and Letton Bros. with one.

Hoss and Hoss With Old Man.

Mr. C. Arnsperger and family returned from the World's Fair Saturday and experienced several exciting times while gone. First he got lost on "the pike," and his 14-year-old son, Will S., had considerable fun out of his father about getting out of the grounds without knowing it, etc. However, Will S. caused the most alarm on the return trip by disappearing at North Vernon, Ind. No one on the train could tell anything about him. After a time a telegram came to the conductor stating he had been left at North Vernon and his parents felt much relieved. Will S. had been standing most of the way and when he saw a rear coach with only three persons in it he walked back and took a comfortable seat.

When the coach was side ricked at Mount Vernon, Ind., he run to the door to leave it and found the door locked and as he reached the other door his train was pulling out. He chased it down the track but could not catch it. He returned to the depot and says he had a fine time. The railroad men treating him several times and a big policeman showed him the sights of the town until his train left for Cincinnati, where his father was awaiting his arrival. Looks to us like he is "Hoss and Hoss" on the old man for the latter got lost first.

Prosperous Home Industry.

The Bourbon Steam Laundry has lately added another delivery wagon to meet its increasing trade. The work turned out by this laundry is of a high class and can not be excelled. It is a home institution, employing more than 20 people and their pay roll amounts to more than $200 per week, all of which is spent right here at home with our merchants. Don't send your laundry away when you can have it done right here and your patronage will help to sustain a successful home institution that employs a large number of home people.
